BGLOBAL SIGNS AGREEMENT WITH THOMAS COOK UK

Bglobal plc (AIM:BGBL), the leading UK smart metering and energy data company, has signed a contract to install electricity smart meters, gas AMR solutions, and provide associated data services across Thomas Cook UK's retail outlet portfolio.

Bglobal will work in partnership with Thomas Cook to supply, install and service its smart electricity meters throughout its stores in the UK. The contract involves the installation of approximately 800 smart meters and 35 gas AMR solutions, and is expected to commence in August 2010.

Tony Barnes, Group Chief Executive of Bglobal commented: "Thomas Cook becomes another key partner for Bglobal, and we are delighted to be supporting the company's very clear commitment to make smarter decisions on energy use. As a business smart metering market leader, our expertise in supporting retail customers helps us to fully understand the customer's needs and effectively manage both the initial infrastructure deployment plan and their ongoing data requirements to help them fulfil their goals.
